

EDGEWATER GLEN ASSOCIATION -- Newsletter, June 18, 1987

GLEN FEST -- Saturday, June 27, from 12 Noon to 4 p.m. on Greenview, between Hood and Norwood. Some favorites will be there -- Garfield Goose, photography in "period costumes", games, as well as delicious food at reasonable cost. We need your help, though, to make this a success. Volunteers are needed to assist in cooking the hot dogs, bratwurst, and "manning" the ticket tables. If you can give an hour or two, we'd appreciate it. Call Nancy Huddlestun at 764-8312. Thank you.

CLEANING UP the Edgewater Glen area is a top priority. Call Dawn Wyman, Gloria Aykroid or Pat Reilly with the addresses that need tree trimming, have abandoned cars or when you notice building violations. Alderperson Kathy Osterman has promised to see that any eyesores that are reported will be handled in an efficient manner. And, our thanks to Ald. David Orr for his cooperation.

CORNER MARKERS -- The designs are ready! The mold is ready! And, Material Services has volunteered to pour the cement and deliver the bricks! However, since this is available at volunteer prices (no cost!), we are subject to their time schedules. EGA is hoping that by this Fall the historical markers will be in place! (They are worth waiting for!)
