

GLEN FEST 1992

After all that work getting tables set up which were donated by St. Gertrudes, and receiving baked goods from our bakers and getting the water boiling for the hotdogs, the rains came down. Poor Ann and Charlie Meyers. Suddenly their home became the storage house for cases of pop and condiments and many freezers were located for hot dogs and buns. Many thanks to all who pitched in on setting up and breaking down the rained out 1992 fest. But the best was yet to come. Betty Barclay, Dawn Wyman agreed to chair the EGA Garden Walk and it was the best and biggest ever. Over 40 gardens were entered this year and the rains held off until late afternoon. Special thanks to Gethsemane who donated a gift certificate to the raffle and also brought over a truck load of plants to sell, Certified foods who donated all of the pop, Gloria Akeroid and Anne Aune who donated gifts for the children's raffle, John and Cathy Bisbing donated sweaters and a jogging outfit from Boston Traders and gift certificates from: Stacks & Steaks, Svea, Ann Sathers, Angels, Ruff 'N Stuff Pet Shop, Wright's Pet Shop, Meisner Holley Animal Hospital, Clark Devon Hardware, Pasteur Restaurant, Carson's Ribs, Zengler Dry Cleaners Fred Facun Landscaper and Jackie's Flair Beauty Shop.. An additional thank you to CeCe Murphy for spending the majority of her time handing out balloons to the children.

EGA HANDYMAN'S LIST

At long last attached to this newsletter is our own Yellow Pages which covers everything from cleaning your carpet to having your woodwork stripped. Every company and/or individual on this list has been recommended by someone in Edgewater Glen because of good work and good service. We hope you will find this list useful -- and thanks to everyone who helped make this list happen.

PUBLIC SAFETY

There have been reports of items being stolen from backyards, decks and even a chair stolen from a front porch. As usual, I repeat, keep porch lites on at night and also yard lights. Report abandoned autos to the Alderman's Office (48th Ward - 784-5277, 49th Ward - 338-5796).
