

EGA Clean-Up

Many thanks to the Kiely's of Glenlake and the Anderson's of Hood for taking part in the EGA Spring Clean-Up. A thank you also goes to the Northwestern students who volunteered to sweep and shovel debris. April 28th was too soon to receive paint for a graffiti paint-out, however, for those of you have been hit by graffiti - remember to make a police report, notify our Beat Rep Center (Lorna Clucas, 744-7995) so they are aware of the problem and can keep track of the activity, and lastly, REMOVE IT immediately and encourage your neighbors to do the same. EGA now has cream, barn red and gray paint. Contact Sue Green at 764-5418.

Public Safety

There have been two gang related incidents thus far this summer. One was on the 1400 block of Glenlake and the other took place on the 1300 block of Glenlake. In addition, several garages have been broken into and barbecues have been stolen from back yards. Once again a reminder - get those yard lights and porch lights on and leave them on all night. The police recommend having your address on your back fence, gate or garage. Try to set aside some time each evening to sit on your porches, sprinkle your lawns, go for a stroll around the block - be visible.

EGA Beautification Committee

Tom Brennan, last year's first place Garden Walk winner has volunteered to chair an EGA Beautification Committee. Tom has a great idea for a fall plant exchange. More to follow in the next newsletter.

EGA Garden Walk/Glenfest

Sunday, July 28th has been set aside for the Garden Walk/Glenfest. All are invited to participate. In fact, this year we've added a new category - porches and balconies! The walk will begin, maps in hand, at the EGA table on the corner of Glenlake and Greenview at 11AM and end at 2PM. Return the form below to 1420 W. Glenlake or call Sue (Garden Walk) and Judy (Bake Sale) by July 12th. In addition to the Garden Walk the Glenfest will host a bake sale and sell hot dogs and lemonade. Bring the kiddies for the Moon Walk and to see the fire truck.

I will show my Garden on July 28 (clip or call Sue Green at 764-5418)

I will bake for the Bake Sale (clip or call Judy Matthews at 262-6118)

Neighborhood News

- The Senn Park Advisory Board and Care For Real sent letters of appreciation for donations made recently by EGA.
- The Anderson's on Hood and Rudeks on Glenlake won't need any "Off" this summer! These two homes will be sporting new screened-in back proches. Another EGA improvement!!
- School is out and so are the kids! Please be careful of young bike riders (and walkers or runners) at corners and in between. As we all know, caution can be replaced by excitement and friends very easily.
- EGA extends deepest symathy to the Donlan family.
- It's membership time again! Soon you will all get a visit from your Block Rep for membership renewal. If you are not already a member, we hope you will join.
- For those of you who have seen security men walking on Clark Street, they are employees of National Security, Ltd., a security patrol that patrols the Kenmore/Winthrop/Broadway area and is now patrolling Clark from Foster to Devon on weekends.
