GET INTO THE SPIRIT, LET'S DECORATE THE GLEN FOR THE HOLIDAYS

HOME IMPROVEMENT OF THE MONTH by Pat Lofthouse, Corresponding Secretary

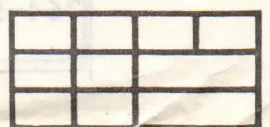

Mary Cunningham and her husband, Stan, are to be commended for the fine changes on their two story home on 1419 W. Granville. New siding, gutters, front porch and back deck have transformed the exterior into a showplace. Stan's grapevine arbor is back looks like a new entry for the EGA's June 1985 Garden Walk. In addition, much work has taken place on the interior of the house. Congratulations on a job well done, Mary and Stan.

IN THE GLEN.....

Marion Valini and David Orr, Aldermen representing our neighborhood, have conducted their annual Neighborhood Surveys through EGA Ward Representatives Dawn Wyman, Betty Jacobsen, Pat Lofthouse and Michael Jeffers. The surveys are used to determine the location and types of problems which may need attention. Typically, problems include: clogged sewers, pot holes, tree trimming, poor street lighting, abandoned cars and more. Help us to help you. Keep us informed about problems in the neighborhood, and we can work through the Aldermen's offices.

EGA PERSONALITY OF THE MONTH...FEATURING KATHRYN KOZAN by Pat Lofthouse, Corresponding Secretary

Kathryn Kozan, our local artist in residence, is involved in another exciting project. She has been hired for her specialty - trompe l'oeil to change the Beef Steak Restraunt on Sheridan Road into a new look for Pierre O'Brien's. The restraunt will boast a French cafe complete with balconies under the stars, wine cellar and an Irish pub! The new restraunt will continue to offer its large basement for community activities, free of charge. Kudos to Kathy and the owners of the Beefsteak Inn - oops, Pierre O'Brien's.
