

Edgewater Reads

We believe that...

- Open sharing of books, ideas, and stories enriches every aspect of life
- Connecting people adds value to our community
- Reading strengthens minds, moves hearts, and stirs imaginations
- Building access to a learning community opens opportunities for everyone

To learn more about Edgewater Reads, visit edgewaterreads.org or like us on Facebook!

Contact us at edgewaterreads@gmail.com to get involved.

Edgewater Reads is made possible by the Overhead Project, a 501(c)3.

National Library Week

Little Edgewater Library Crawl

April 8 - 14

Collect as many favorite book titles posted on the front window of local Little Edgewater Libraries as you can in one week!
Return your list on April 14th at the National Library Week Celebration for a chance to win a prize.

Sponsored by Edgewater Reads & Friends of the Edgewater Library

National Library Week Activities

April 8-14

Little Edgewater Library Tour Challenge

April 11

Reading on the “L” 9-11 a.m.

Volunteers will be joining the late morning commute passing out books on the redline.

April 13

Friday Fun Day 2-4 p.m.

Stop by the Edgewater Library to make a bookmark with Edgewater Village and Chicago Methodist Senior Services.

April 14

National Library Week Celebration 2-4 p.m.

Return your crawl booklet to the Edgewater Library for a chance to win prizes, mingle with fellow little library hosts and Edgewater reader. Bring a bag to fill with books from our repository for your little library and pick up new Edgewater Reads bookmarks.

Edgewater Reads

Little Edgewater Library Map

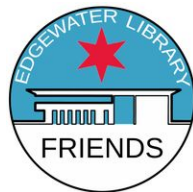

Library Address

Book Title

Collect as many book titles
as you can while touring the Little Edgewater Libraries.

Return your list for a chance to win prizes on April 14th at the Edgewater
Library from 2-4 PM

Visit EdgewaterReads.org for a map of our libraries

Library Address

Book Title

Library Address

Book Title

